

Boot Camp & Leaders Only Self-Assessment

This is a revolutionary program that has demonstrated lasting results. At Boot Camp you'll start the process. In the Leaders Only eCourse environment, you'll continue to grow. It is coaching plus accountability in a dynamic and fun environment leading to lasting change in these areas:

- ⊙ Communication – Am I consistently clear and concise, getting my ideas out of my head and out my mouth in a way people understand? Am I avoiding arguments and still getting my point across without upsetting others? Am I told that I'm a good listener, genuinely interested in other people? Do I "get to the point" quickly or bore others?
- ⊙ Confidence - Most people's "esteem buckets" are emptied daily. Do I know how to fill mine back up and do the same for others? Am I as confident as I should be, given my circumstances? Do I have a spirit of power, love and self-discipline or one of timidity? Do I ever wonder if people will find out that I'm really not what they currently think I am? Am I brave enough (in Him) to do what I sense God wants me to do, or do I hesitate or ignore His direction? Is my spirit judgmental or do I have a positive and contagious attitude?
- ⊙ Influence – Do I wish I had greater influence with those whom I lead or work with? Do people naturally follow me, whether I am in a leadership position or not? Am I able to get others to take action and stay engaged? Do people look to me when they are struggling for help and solutions?
- ⊙ Purpose in Life - Living a life on purpose means I know why I am here, and how I am supposed to impact my circle of influence. How much does that definition apply to me? Do I have a vision for my endeavors? Do I know God's purposes for my life and trust He will help me succeed?
- ⊙ Time Management - Stressed out? Wish I could get more done? Am I looking forward to the future or am I a worrier? Do I take care of myself physically, emotionally and spiritually before experiencing burnout, stress or resentment? Do I know where things are and can easily find them?
- ⊙ Dealing with People - How well do I handle difficult people? What about conflicts? Do I welcome them or do they make me apprehensive? Can I easily see what people are doing well? Do I consistently point those things out to them? How well do I communicate constructive feedback? Do I complain frequently or do people say I'm a "positive person?" Do people tell me that I'm an encouraging person? Do I let others know what I respect or admire about them?
- ⊙ Motivating - How contagious am I? Does my level of enthusiasm move people forward consistently? Do I freely share responsibilities? Do others gain energy from discussions with me or do I drain their enthusiasm?
- ⊙ Leading - How well do I combine influence, motivation, dealing with people and communication? Am I getting the results I want or need? Am I respected by others? Am I trusted by others? Do people say I have good character? Do others view me as reliable? Do I manage resources and people well? Do I ever "stretch the truth?" Do those that follow me know how what they do fits into the vision? Am I consistently and repeatedly reinforcing this? Do I positively influence others to passionately and strategically follow the vision? Am I comfortable in conflict and work out solutions?
- ⊙ Public Speaking – Do I hate it like most? Do I miss opportunities to impact others due to fear of public speaking? Do I get asked to speak regularly? Do people stay interested or do they get bored while I'm speaking? Do I consider public speaking a privilege and/or fun? Do people often compliment my presentations and teaching? Or when I'm done, does relief permeate the room?
- ⊙ Spiritual Growth – Do I just know people who seem to have peace and an absence of stress in their lives or am I one of them? Does my day consist of conversation with God? Do I make decisions based upon what would most please Him, or is He a "concept" to me? Am I reading the Bible and growing from that experience, or is it a "to do list" item for me? Does it grieve me when I sin? Am I humbled by and recognize fully my own depravity of spirit without Jesus Christ?
